

Vaccination Information

Human Papilloma Virus (HPV)

What is HPV?

A common group of viruses that affect your skin and mucous linings of the body.

HPV can cause...

Genital warts, cancer of the cervix, anus, penis and some mouth and throat cancers.

How is it spread?

It can be transmitted by any skin-to-skin contact in the genital and oral areas

Possible Common Side effects of the vaccine

- Pain and swelling around injection site
- Fever
- Nausea
- Headache

For further information please visit, www.nhs.uk/vaccinations

<https://vk.ovg.ox.ac.uk/vk/>